

History Knowledge Organiser: FS2/Year 1 - Changes Within Living Memory

Key Questions:

How has the way we communicate changed over time?

How have our homes changed over time?

How has the food we eat changed over time?

Key Vocabulary

Change - things not staying the same.

Communication - ways to talk or pass a message from one person to another.

Past - a time which has already happened.

Present - things that are happening now.

Rationing - rules about how much food you are allowed to buy, introduced during the Second World War.

Technology - method and machines invented to help us. Technology makes lots of things quicker and easier.

Timeline - a way to show what order events happen in.

Walkman - a portable audio player.

Artefacts

First mobile phone (1983)

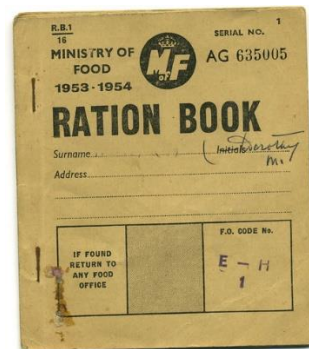

First iPhone (2007)

1960s television set

1980s cassette player

Children's ration book (1953)

1960s frozen peas advert

Key Dates

1921: First telephone box in the UK

1927: Live television created.

1940: Food rationing introduced.

1950s: Freezers become widespread.

1951: First colour television broadcast.

1954: Food rationing ends.

1960s: Washing machines become widespread.

1960s: Frozen food becomes popular

1970s: Dishwashers and microwaves become widespread.

1974: First McDonalds in the UK.

1979: First Walkman.

1986: Hobnobs introduced.

1989: the world wide web is invented.

1983: the first mobile phone is sold.

1992: First text message sent.

1998: Google is founded.

2001: First iPod released.

2007: the first iPhone is sold.

2010: FaceTime is invented.